System 57 Hardware Assembly

Product Identity

The Honeywell 05704-A-0135 is a System 57 hardware assembly identified by its full part number. Honeywell's public 2018 System 57 spare-parts guide does not decode this exact 0135 suffix, so the card function, channel count and approvals must be confirmed from the physical label and controlled System 57 manual.

Verified Reference Points

1. Exact System 57 part-number identity
2. Approval-sensitive application
3. Revision-controlled replacement
4. Conservative signal verification

Signal / System Function

Exact sensor or relay signal assignment is not published for 05704-A-0135 in the cited public product guide.
