Legacy HPM Cabinet Assembly

Product Identity

The Honeywell 51303940-200 is a legacy HPM/TPS cabinet assembly identified by the supplied part number. A current public Honeywell document exposing the exact electrical and mechanical specification was not located, so this page deliberately limits claims to code identity and controlled maintenance use.

Verified Reference Points

1. Part-number controlled identity
2. Legacy cabinet service relevance
3. Nameplate-led verification
4. No unsupported electrical claims

Signal / System Function

No process signal assignment is published for this complete part number in the public Honeywell sources reviewed.
