Legacy HPM Circuit Assembly

Product Identity

The Honeywell 51303976-400 is a legacy HPM/TPS circuit assembly identified by its supplied part number. Because a current public Honeywell specification for this exact revision was not located, the page does not assign an unverified communications, processor or I/O role.

Verified Reference Points

1. Complete part-number traceability
2. Card-set compatibility control
3. Legacy-system maintenance focus
4. No inferred network or I/O role

Signal / System Function

Exact internal bus or network function is not publicly confirmed for this complete part number.
